

Reading Guide for Scientific Journal Articles

Article Title:

Authors:

What question or questions are the authors trying to address (What is the research question)?

How do they attempt to test their hypothesis (methods)?

What do the authors find (results)? Locate the key results and summarize them here.

What are some broader implications or applications of this research (relevance)?

What do you think are the strengths of this study?

What do you find interesting about this study? What might the public find interesting?

What might you be able to use from this article in a program, discussion or moment with a visitor or group of visitors?